- 25 The examination shall be completed within two (2) hours.

- 1 4. The examination shall be limited to the Plaintiff's complaints of physical injury arising
- 2 from the subject accident and/or prior or subsequent traumatic events.
- 3 5. The examination shall be held in a medical office in compliance with HIPPA.
- 4 6. The Examiner's opinions are limited to the area of his specialty.
- 5 7. The examination will involve a physical and neurological examination of the Plaintiff's
- 6 body by the Examiner according to accepted medical procedures, protocols and
- 7 standards. The examination will not involve any invasive testing or testing of any bodily
- 8 fluids.
- 9 8. The Examiner will not render any medical treatment to the Plaintiff.
- 10 9. No mental, emotional or psychological examinations of the Plaintiff shall be allowed.
- 11 10. Any paperwork required by the Examiner's office shall be submitted to Plaintiff no later
- 12 than seven (7) days prior to the examination.
- 13 11. Plaintiff agrees to arrive at the Examiner's office on time with completed Rule 35
- 14 examination paperwork.
- 15 12. Plaintiff will not be required to wait longer than thirty (30) minutes past the scheduled
- 16 appointment time and will not be charged if the Plaintiff leaves after that time.
- 17 13. If Plaintiff cannot attend the examination as scheduled, Plaintiff will notify Defendant's
- 18 counsel at least fourteen (14) business days in advance.
- 19 14. Defendant's counsel shall be responsible for providing the Examiner with a copy of this
- 20 stipulation and order prior to the examination.

21 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
